MARTINI menu

The -1860 Occident - 31

PROHIBITION GIN, MARASCHINO, ORANGE BITTERS & HOUSE VERMOUTH

The Martini, born in the 1860s at San Francisco's Occidental Hotel, was crafted when a bartender reinvented the classic Martinez by omitting the liqueur. In a nod to history with a playful twist, we've reintroduced it for your sipping pleasure.

A Velvet Veil Martini - 27

PROHIBITION MOONLIGHT GIN, VERMOUTH & COINTREAU

Sip this enchanting cocktail and let it transport you to secret soirées, where elegance & intrigue dance behind velvet curtains.

Rose Garden Martini - 27

PROHIBITION BLOOD ORANGE GIN, ROSEMARY SYRUP & OLIVE OIL

Inspired by the creativity and rebellion of hidden bars, this cocktail captures the essence of those secret gatherings where every sip was a delightful adventure.
